

Main aim of the training program on Climate Resilient Pathways for Sustainable Development (ICT-78) is to impart knowledge to the participants regarding aspects of environment, various types of pollution and its effects, sustainable development, technologies to control pollution as well as to achieve sustainable development.

The course contents of this Short Term Course are as follows –

- Environment, Pollution and Sustainable Development
- Air Pollution and its Mitigation
- Water Pollution and Wastewater Treatment
- Natural Resources Conservation
- Soil Health Management
- Renewable Energy Sources
- Green Buildings
- IoT and its Applications for Sustainable Development
- Govt. of India Schemes for promoting Energy Efficiency, Renewable Energy etc.